

Friday Morning Kids' Activities

STEAMBOAT ERA MUSEUM

Learn about the Steamboat Era on the Chesapeake Bay

- View photos of children and adults from the Steamboat Era
- Turn the pilothouse wheel and ring the engine order telegraph bell
- Play children's games popular during the Steamboat Era
- Make a wooden steamboat and try it in the water

Here's How to Participate!

Kids' activities are held on Friday mornings June 24 through August 19, from 10:30 to noon at the museum
Ages 4 to 12 years old

Children must be accompanied by an adult
The fee is $5 per child. Adult(s) are free for the tours

Parents, Grandparents, Guardians and Friends

Bring children to the Steamboat Era Museum to learn the history of how Chesapeake steamboats changed the area and how they worked. They will have fun imagining what a steamboat trip was like and what being a child over a century ago entailed.
